Went straight to that.The history of the Fourteen Kings of Havnor (actually six kings and eight queens, ~150-400) is told in the Havnorian Lay. Tracing descent both through the male and the female lines, and intermarrying with various noble houses of the Archipelago, the royal house embraced five principalities: the House of Enlad, the oldest, tracing direct descent from Morred and Serriadh; the Houses of Shelieth, Ea, and Havnor; and lastly the House of Ilien. Prince Gemal Seaborn of Ilien was the first of his house to take the throne in Havnor. His granddaughter was Queen Heru; her son, Maharion (reigned 430-452), was the last king before the Dark Time..horses, inhabited only by nesting swallows that swooped about over the roofs calling their quick.troubled times, the boatwright and his family were anxious not to come to notice lest they come to.mountain, he thought of the Mages of Roke, the masters of the art magic, the professors of mystery.back against the immense trunk of the oak, and stared into the forest for a while. The bond between them that had linked them and let her save him was not broken. Many times she had come into his dreams, standing silent as she stood when he first saw her in the reeking tower at Samory. And he had seen her, years ago, in the vision of the dying healer in Telio, in the twilight, beside the wall of stones..wizards who worked for such men as Losen, letting fear or greed pervert magic to evil ends..She looked up and saw the Hoary Man come out of a dark aisle of great oaks and come towards her across the glade..patrols south of Omer, running a stolen fishing boat with the magewind. The patrol caught them.At that the Summoner ran up towards her, reaching out, lunging at her as if to seize and hold her. They were both on the hill now. She towered above him impossibly, fire breaking forth between them, a flare of red flame in the dusk air, a gleam of red-gold scales, of vast wings - then that was gone, and there was nothing there but the woman standing on the hill path and the tall man bowing down before her, bowing slowly down to earth, and lying on it..though the Otter's House was still in sunlight. Kurremkarmerruk sat on the bench with his back.save him..It was far more convenient to him that Losen should be king than that he himself should rule Havnor openly. Men of arms didn't trust men of craft and didn't like to serve them. No matter what a mage's powers, unless he was as mighty as the Enemy of Morred, he couldn't hold armies and fleets together if the soldiers and sailors chose not to obey. People were in the habit of fearing and obeying Losen, an old habit now, and well learned. They credited him with the powers he had had of bold strategy, firm leadership, and utter cruelty; and they credited him with powers he had never had, such as mastery over the wizards who served him..said nothing, a non-rhetorical answer..farther off, swords of light rose up cold and thin into the sky, whether homes or pillars, I did not."You're in such a hurry.
